Unit 29: COULD

Could is a modal verb. Unit 27 shows you how to make correct sentences with it. This unit shows you when you can use it.

1 Possibility

EXAMPLE: I suppose he could be with a customer.

b FUTURE EXAMPLE: It could become a big problem.

C PAST EXAMPLE: Surely he could not have got lost in the store.

d IMAGINARY EXAMPLE: If I had more money, I could buy a franchise.

e IMAGINARY PAST EXAMPLE: I did my best. I could not have tried any harder.

NOTICE: also may (Unit 30); also might (Unit 30)

NOTICE: for more on imagining, see Unit 86

2 Asking for a HELP EXAMPLES: Please could you send me some information about the course.

Could you lend me some money?

NOTICE: also can (Unit 28); also will (Unit 31)

b PERMISSION EXAMPLE: Could I possibly come and see you next week?

NOTICE: also can (Unit 28); also may (Unit 30)

3 Past tense of can

a ABILITY EXAMPLE: We could not find a size small shirt on the rack.

b PERMISSION EXAMPLE: In the old store, you could find many sizes.

c POSSIBILITY EXAMPLE: At that time, you could buy two shirts for the price of one.

NOTICE: Luckily, I could shop for a long time. It was possible.

Luckily, I was able to shop for a long time. And I did.

ALSO be able to (Unit 36)

NOTICE:

We also use could (NOT can) in sentences with a past tense verb before the modal (Unit 63).

EXAMPLES: They wanted to know if I could help them.

He said that he could not come on Saturday.
